

Sir Henry Acland

I have the honor

My dear Dr. Gray,

I cannot let the Book go forth without a line of fraternal thanks for all your kindness, and patience - not to say also your instruction.

The time you have

now - to be full war, & fear, unattended with difficulty from some last days in England, and I liked some good maps & useful exercises. But I hope neither will be Gray nor present with have been the worse, and that you will reach here soon in fine weather to accompany me on the way home.

Please give my respects to Professor Volkmann, and with 3 kindest
wishes to his family & to,
